

Functional Job Framework

Enhancing Supply Chain Efficiency and Integration

The Technical Operations & Systems Integration framework focuses on enhancing efficiency across supply chains through integrated systems and technology, optimizing logistics, governance, and performance metrics for the agri-food sector.

By utilizing ERP, WMS, and CRM software, organizations can achieve scalability and integrated solutions, driving performance improvements that align with strategic goals while ensuring sustainable practices within the agri-food industry.

